8.	EQUALITIES AND HUMAN RIGHTS CONSIDERATIONS
	Although the Deputy Commissioner is a member of the PCC's staff (s18(10) of the Act), under paragraph 8(4) of Schedule 1 of the Act the appointment of a DPCC is exempt from the requirement of Section 7 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, that all staff appointments should be made on merit. There is therefore no requirement for the open recruitment process that would normally apply when recruiting staff to the Commissioner's office. However, the PCC decided to follow normal recruitment procedure when originally appointing Eleri Thomas in 2016 in order to ensure an open, fair and transparent process. The positive and successful way in which this role has been delivered since then has resulted in the Commissioner confirming that Eleri Thomas should be re-appointed. In carrying out her functions, the DPCC will need to have due regard to the provisions of the Equality Act 2010 and, in particular, to the general equality duty, the broad purpose of which is to integrate consideration of equality and good relations into day to day business and for consideration to be given to how public bodies can positively contribute to the advancement of equality and good community relations.

Statement from Jeff Cuthbert, Police and Crime Commissioner for Gwent

Eleri Thomas was appointed in 2016 after a full and open selection process. Over 40 applicants were considered. Following her selection by me she was endorsed by the Panel shortly afterwards. Eleri has worked closely with me and the team within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner ever since. Eleri has carefully managed and delivered the functions entrusted to her position with the support of the Chief Executive and Chief Finance Officer as well as the wider team. I know that Eleri also has the confidence of and support of the Chief Officer team of Gwent Police, and our key partners.

As Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner Eleri is aware of, and has supported me, in the varied range of functions and responsibilities that come with the office of Commissioner. She has been a fundamental part of key strategic discussions and decision-making processes throughout this time. Eleri has deputised for me in a number of roles, from chairing boards such as the Gwent Criminal Justice Board to representing Gwent on a Welsh and UK basis. She also leads for Welsh PCCs in relation to a number of areas.

I am confident that over the past four and a half years Eleri Thomas has demonstrated to the panel the personal and leadership qualities she possesses which allow her to fulfil the role of Deputy Commissioner in such a way that clearly adds value to the OPCC, policing and criminal justice, in general. I know that it is her intention to continue to support the mission to work closely with all partners to keep the communities of Gwent safe.

With all of this in mind, I ask you to support my proposal to re-appoint Eleri Thomas as Deputy Commissioner.
